Dear Mr. Sligh:

Thank you very much for your thoughtfulness in writing to me as you did about the talk that I made before the 64th Annual Congress of American Industry.

Your generous comments are particularly gratifying and I am highly pleased to learn from you that the meeting was so successful. I might say that it was a real pleasure for me to participate in this particular meeting and I thoroughly enjoyed the occasion.

With my best wishes for a Merry Christmas and a successful New Year.

Sincerely,

Allen W. Dulles
Director

Dear Mr. Dulles:

On behalf of the officers and directors of NAM, I would like to express to you our deep appreciation for your major contribution to the 64th Annual Congress of American Industry.

To this I add my personal thanks for your willingness to take time from an already busy schedule to be with us for these deliberations. The fine reports I have heard convince me that this meeting was an outstanding success and I am sure this was due in no small part to your participation.

With every good wish,

Cordially,
